Prepared. For Life.™

Welcome to the outdoor adventure properties of the Santa Fe Trail Council, BSA! Spanish Peaks Scout Ranch and Mandan Scout Camp & Training Center are special properties that support Scouting's mission of offering an outdoor environment for Scouts to learn. Each of these properties has a specific focus that enable a pack, troop or crew to plan a weekend or week long program. The Santa Fe Trail Council offer programs at each property for Scouts, Scouters and families to enjoy.

The property reservation booklet is to assist you in planning and reserving areas of the properties that you need for your weekend or week-long event. Please review the enclosed packet for the safety rules at properties. The complete reservations forms are to be submitted to the council service center one week prior to you planned event. All program activities are to be age appropriate according to the Safe Guide to Scouting manual. A PDF version is available on the council website (www.sftcbsa.org) and an age appropriate chart is in the program planning guide to assist you.

Please note the fee schedule as to buildings; campgrounds and deposits are to be submitted prior to your event to complete your reservation. The purpose of the $150 cleaning deposit is to insure that buildings are clean for the next Scouting groups. Once the ranger has approved the condition of the buildings the fee is returned to you. All fees collected are used to the benefit of the paying the expense to operate the properties year round.

Thank you for choosing the outdoor adventure properties of the Santa Fe Trail Council and if you needing assistance with planning your adventure program see one of the members of the council executive team or unit commissioner.
